

Release #26 BROKEN MARY MOVIE RELEASE

Hello all,

Our Worthy National Regent, Susan Mone', has sent a wonderful suggestion for celebrating the Feast of the Holy Rosary on October 7th. Family Theater Productions is releasing the movie "Broken Mary: The Kevin Matthews Story". In the words of our founder, Venerable Patrick Peyton, it's "All for Her." For one night only, on October 7, The Feast of the Holy Rosary, Family Theater Productions is releasing in theaters nationwide Broken Mary: The Kevin Matthews Story.

It's an inspiring true story about redemption, conversion, and forgiveness. And the star of the show is the Blessed Mother who takes all our broken cracks and makes them beautiful for Jesus. As background information about the film: Kevin Matthews was a wild DJ in the late 80s and 90s and, after his health crumbles and fame begins to fade, he finds redemption next to a dirty dumpster from an unlikely source: a statue of the Virgin Mary.

Bring your Rosary, as after the film ends, there will be an invitation to stay and pray the Rosary with Kevin as part of the bonus content, which is fitting since it is the Feast of the Holy Rosary!

Buy tickets at <https://www.brokenmaryfilm.com/> or check Fathom Events for a local theater in your area. Make this a court pilgrimage! Remember your rosary for the after party!
