Tips for enjoying convention:

Make the most of your time at convention. Network with fellow Catholic Daughters, especially those you don't yet know. Share ideas, gain insight, make friends.

The dress code for business sessions is "Business Casual" – sweatpants, shorts, gym attire, revealing clothing and t-shirts (even CDA t-shirts) are not appropriate attire. Show off your CDA shirts at the concert, free time, state night, etc.

The meeting rooms are large, and it is difficult to regulate the temperature and keep everyone comfortable. I recommend dress in layers: a short-sleeved top with a cardigan or blazer is always a good choice.

Evenings, after meals and events, are generally spent in casual clothes, visiting friends and relaxing. Take advantage of workshops before the convention. These are tremendous educational opportunities for you.

Benefit from the opportunity to sit with members outside of your court and state while enjoying breakfast or lunch. This is a great time to make connections.

Remember that hotel staff keep different schedules. The housekeeper you have on Wednesday may not work weekends. It's a good idea to leave $1 on your pillow each morning to let the staff know they are appreciated and ensure that the proper person receives your tip.
